

Labelling Triangles

The longest side of a right triangle is called the hypotenuse

To name the other sides we need an angle

The side which is across the triangle from the angle is "Opposite"

The side which is touching the angle (but is not the hypotenuse) is called "Adjacent"

